

SOUTH MERIDIAN - You Are the Map!

EXISTING LAND USE LEGEND

- The legend is divided into two columns. The left column lists symbols and their meanings: Game Square (orange square), Roads (dark blue line), Planning Area (red and blue patterned square), Area of City Impact (blue outline with red and blue pattern), Civic (pink square), Gasline Easement (light blue square), High Density Employment (dark blue square), Low Density Employment (light blue square), Mixed Employment (purple square), Green Space and Park (green square), Mixed Use Commercial (pink square), Mixed Use Residential (yellow square), and Lifestyle Center (brown square). The right column lists land use categories with corresponding color swatches: Mixed Use - Regional (dark red), Mixed Use - Community (orange), Mixed Use - Neighborhood (light orange), Mixed Use - Non Residential (brown), Civic (pink), Commercial (red), Industrial (purple), Office (magenta), High Density Residential (orange), Med-High Density Residential (yellow-orange), Medium Density Residential (yellow), Low Density Residential (light green), and Old Town (pink).

Symbol	Meaning	Land Use Category
Orange square	Game Square	Mixed Use - Regional
Dark blue line	Roads	Mixed Use - Community
Red and blue patterned square	Planning Area	Mixed Use - Neighborhood
Blue outline with red and blue pattern	Area of City Impact	Mixed Use - Non Residential
Pink square	Civic	Civic
Light blue square	Gasline Easement	Commercial
Dark blue square	High Density Employment	Industrial
Light blue square	Low Density Employment	Office
Purple square	Mixed Employment	High Density Residential
Green square	Green Space and Park	Med-High Density Residential
Pink square	Mixed Use Commercial	Medium Density Residential
Yellow square	Mixed Use Residential	Low Density Residential
Brown square	Lifestyle Center	Old Town

A horizontal scale bar representing distance in miles. The scale is marked at 0, 0.25, and 0.5 miles. The first 0.25 mile is shaded black, while the remaining 0.25 mile is white.

GAME PIECE LEGEND

Rural / Estate Residential

- » 4 dwelling units per square
 - » Smaller-scale farming and other traditional rural / agricultural uses
 - » Large open spaces and preservation of view sheds
 - » May not be connected to City sewer and / or water

Low Density Residential

- » 80 dwelling units per square
 - » Low density suburban style residential
 - » Identifiable neighborhoods with lower traffic volumes
 - » Larger lots and more personal spaces

Medium Density Residential

- » 160 dwelling units per square mile
 - » Medium density, suburban style subdivisions
 - » Closer proximity to neighbors and friends
 - » Public amenities and shared spaces
 - » Variety of housing choices - single family homes, townhomes, and condos

Mixed Use

- » 320 dwelling units per square
 - » Combination of inter-connected residential and commercial uses
 - » Medium to medium-high density residential
 - » Closer proximity to services and amenities
 - » Neighborhood scale shopping and professional office opportunities

Commercial

- » Areas of higher intensity shopping and other commercial services
 - » Vehicle focused access
 - » Located along arterial and major roadways

MERIDIAN
IDAHO